SENATOR DOLLIVER'S VIEWS

The Real American Type He Says, Is Backed by Poverty, Discipline and Hard Work —Speaks From Pulpit.

New York, Feb. 29.—J. P. Dolliver United States senator from Iowa has delivered an hour's address in Plymouth church, Brooklyn. The senator's subject was: "The Republic and the Spirit of Patriotism," and he spoke of the poor boy as the most important factor in the making of the Republic.
"I am not wasting my sympathy on the children of the poor," he said.
"What little sympathy I have I will give to the children of the rich."
"If you have $100,000 and give it to a boy to start him out in life, he does not start. I suggest keeping that $100-

Man in San Francisco Hospital Tries Hard to Remember
His Name.

THINKS HE'S YALE GRADUATE

Appears to Be Cultured and Educated, But Past to Him Is Utter Blank—Faint Recollections of Home.

San Francisco, Feb. 29.—Four days ago a man called at the Central Emergency hospital and said he had forgotten his identity. He has since been detained under the name of John Myers, a small Episcopal Bible in his pocket bearing that name. The man thinks that he is a native of New York and that he lives somewhere up the Hudson river; also that he is a graduate of Yale and that he may at one time have been engaged in literary work, either as an illustrator or a writer.
This is borne out by his conversation and he drew a character picture and down in the corner placed a signature "P. C. W., '04." In his pockets when he came to the hospital was a small memorandum book containing the address of parties in Spokane, Wash., and Butte, Mont. He also carried a card of Rev. H. B. Collier, San Francisco.
Rev. Collier called on the man but was unable to place him and Myers was unable to recall the minister. A peculiar feature was that the card he had was one that was printed seven years ago. His hands are soft and he had an aristocratic face but who he is and where he came from is something that the people interested in his case cannot fathom and on this point the man himself professes complete ignorance.

New York, Feb. 29.—Captain William Thompson, who was Commodore of the White Star Line a quarter of a century ago is dead here from heart failure. He commanded the Britannic in 1877 when the vessel crossed the Atlantic in the phenomenal time for that period, seven days, 16-1-2 hours.

In 1872 he saved the lives of 12 shipwrecked persons and received a congressional medal.

Russian Nobles at Moscow Resolve to Be Patriotic.

Moscow, Feb. 29.—A large representative meeting of the marshals of the nobility and chief government officials was held here yesterday to discuss the best methods of assisting the Russian wounded during the war in the far east.

At the close of the meeting a telegram was dispatched to the czar expressing unbounded loyalty to him. His majesty immediately replied, expressing his heartfelt gratitude for the noble thought which inspired the message and the sentiments voiced toward himself, adding:

"I see in these expressions new testimony of a determination on the part of the Russian nobles to serve their emperor as they did in former days and to work in common with the sons of Russia for the welfare of our dear fatherland."
